Nostalgia: We Remember —

Overwhelmed by the complexity of contemporary life — and yearning, perhaps, to escape to a less troubled past — people are looking back to what they regard as more pleasant, peaceful yesteryears. The pendulum swings to old memories, old songs, old fads, old styles, old stars.

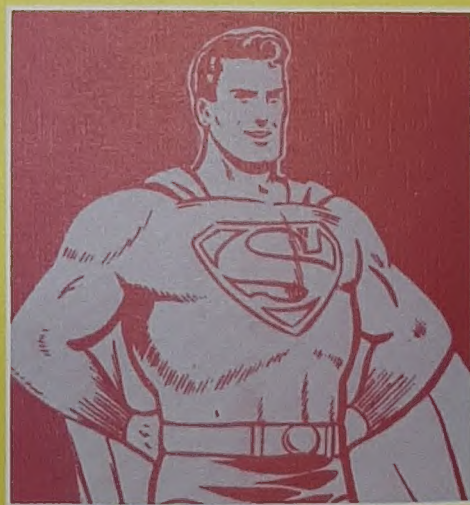

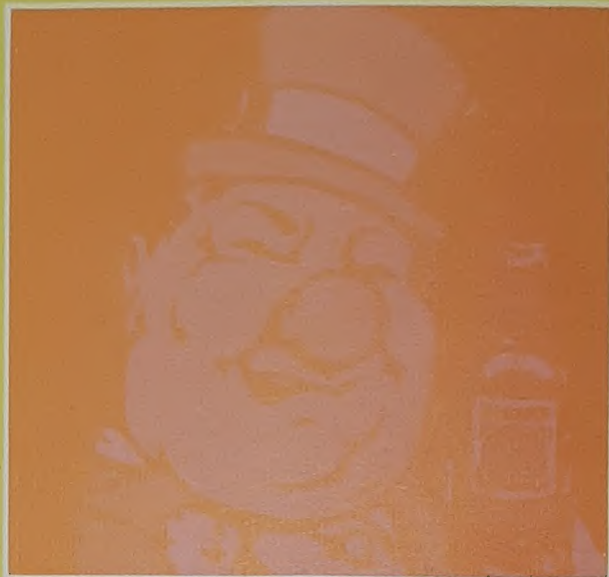

Yesterday's fashions keep showing up for reruns: women with plucked brows are slipping into slinky halters, wedges, and chubby jackets. While men are stepping out in double-breasted suits, two-toned shoes and bow ties.

W. C. Fields, you must have noticed is everywhere and everyone is wearing Mickey Mouse watches again.

Most school kids remember the good days when they worried about important things like what will Popeye do next and what will happen if Romper Room is cancelled.

With a little prompting most teen-agers can remember watching the Beatles making their American debut on the Ed. Sullivan show.

Reviewing comics, films and presidential elections, plus television, pop music, and childhood games that unite all Americans, you'll probably have a good start to being nostalgic. By the way, do you remember who Barry Goldwater's running mate was in 1964?

the good things

Tiny Tim tiptoeing through the tulips with uke having his wed-in on national television.

Annette Funicello intoning M-I-C-K-E-Y M-O-U-S-E.

Whatever happened to "Sock it to me," "I kid you not," "Would you believe," and "Sorry 'bout that?"

Captain Kangaroo and his Dancing Bear.

Ma and Pa Clark and their boy Kent.

Dick Tracy calling . . .

Gotham City being protected by Batman and the Boy Wonder.

The little fat bear on your T-shirts.

Astronauts landing on the moon.

The excitement at Woodstock.

John F. Kennedy, Martin Luther King, and Robert F. Kennedy are slain.

Lee Harvey Oswald, James Earl Ray, and Sirhan Sirhan cause an entire nation to ask what is wrong with itself.

Three rock giants: Joplin, Hendrix, and Morrison.

The Beatles preside at their own funeral in Sergeant Pepper.

Walt Disney dies but lives on in the comic books.

Love Story and Romeo and Juliet — not a dry eye in the house.

Paul McCartney is reported missing but turns up finally.

Peter Duel is reported to be dead.

Hurricanes, earthquakes, mine cave-ins, riots.

Dear reader,

Probably by the time you read this page you will have discovered that this yearbook is constructed differently than those previously published by Benton High School. The Sixth Hour Scarab staff has created the book in this manner for a number of reasons: we wanted to get away from the traditional yearbook; the two-direction book divides the individual pictures from the rest of the yearbook; we wanted this book to be really different from any other Scarab.

Creating this year's Scarab has been an interesting and challenging experience for us working on the Sixth Hour staff. Gaila Brown, Nancy Cybulski, Nancy Eldridge, Melinda Kolisek, and Mr. Messersmith, our hardworking advisor, worked sixth hours, noon hours, free periods, weekends, and nights to meet the deadlines. I am deeply indebted to all of them for all their work. We were assisted by Taylor Publishing Company's representative, Mr. Chuck Cotton. We are also grateful to Mr. Paul Hickman for his photographic aid.

For you the reader and student, we have tried to capture through pictures and words the events of the 1972-73 school year at Benton High School as well as the community and world events which transpired during the school year. In essence, the book is a miniature almanac of 1972-73.

Now I must close if we are to meet our publication deadline. We truly hope you enjoy the 1973 Scarab of Benton Consolidated High School, Benton, Illinois.

Sincerely,
Mary Louise Budzak

Christmas is a time of holly wreaths, fragrant Christmas trees, mistletoe, and someone special standing under that mistletoe. Christmas is a time of love, when even your best enemies become your friends. It's a time of laughter and watching children's faces light up when they see Santa Claus. Christmas is the season of giving. If you can look back on your day and say that you have made a person feel good, laugh, or smile, then you have given them one of the most precious gifts, a little portion of yourself. Christmas is the time of year when the age-old cry is heard, "Peace on Earth, Good Will Toward All Men." The world would be a truly good place to live if we could keep the Christmas spirit all year long in our hearts and actions.

Mrs. Neal is head of the Math Dept. She has taught for 20 years, 15 years at Benton High School. She has served as class sponsor and devotes much time to individual help. Few know the real Mrs. Neal. She loves to travel. Many vacations have been spent in Europe, Mexico, and Jamaica. She dabbles in art with paints, and enjoys restoring antiques. After retirement she plans to resume her travels. She would like to go back to Europe, on to Hawaii, and possibly to Asia. Her pattern so set, I think she'll find it hard to do that algebraically.

You teach Biology for almost thirty-three years and what do you get? A nurse, for the girl that just fainted . . . some kind of deodorizer because chemistry kids are at it again . . . or maybe just a quiet ride on your favorite horse.

Mr. Aiken has taught under five principals. Not only Biology but American History, World Geography and Health. He was Freshman-Sophomore football and basketball coach during World War II. He watched the boys' gym being built and now sees the newest gym being built. He feels the kids at B.C.H.S. are the greatest and could probably tell you their personal problems better than they could. "They are really insects, you know. Certain problems can arise when students will not remain seated — FOUR ON THE FLOOR! Remember the concession stand??? How can we make money if they buy a coke with 10¢ and get a quarter change?"

He has a way of making you feel special; like the first day when you walked in; he knew your name and you hadn't told him.

Speaking Out At Speech Contests

Clark Ann Mitchell and Mary Kay Moore

This year the speech department participated in debate and speech contests. Mr. and Mrs. Ceci coached the Benton team. Benton did not enter in all possible categories; however, plans are being made to do so next year. One member of this year's team said, "... it was good experience, a moral booster, a confidence booster" The speech team participated in several meets this year:

Carbondale Invitational
Woodriver Invitational
Pinckneyville Invitational
S.I.U. Invitational
Belleville Invitational

On a percentage basis, the new Benton team scored well. Several participants in Individual Events advanced to district competition.

The ten people on these two pages have been voted the Ten Outstanding Seniors for the 1972-73 school year. These people are chosen on scholarship, citizenship, leadership, and other outstanding merits they might have.

Their pictures were taken secretly so their identity would remain unknown. Intelligent as they are a plot was schemed and together the pieces fell in place. So it was not until approximately thirty minutes after the pictures were taken that the whole school was aware that they had ten outstanding seniors.

Homecoming was celebrated this year with the theme Time of the Seasons. Each part of the gym was decorated like one of the four seasons. The Homecoming festivities began with an enthusiastic pep session. The 1972-73 queen — Becky Harvey and the attendants — Freshmen: Cindy Lowery and Patti Williams; Sophomores: Ellen Jenkins and Lynne Davis; Juniors: Brenda Eisenhower and Ann Woolley; Seniors: Melanie Tabor and Cathy Whitehead were announced. After the pep session, there was a parade from the high school to the square and back to the high school. Then it was announced that the Spanish Club had won first place for its float with F.F.A. taking second place, and F.B.L.A. third.

Thanksgiving Day everyone came out to watch the annual Turkey Day game between rivals — Benton and West Frankfort. Unfortunately the Rangers were defeated.

The band, Get Your Kicks, livened the evening. Students and alumni anxiously awaited the coronation of the queen. At last the moment arrived and each of the attendants with escorts proceeded to the stage. After the queen was crowned, the dance slowly came to an end — another memorable moment in The Time of the Seasons.

Sophomore Football

Both the Freshman and Sophomore football teams experienced a taste of victory this year. The Freshman team, composed of "greenies" who had never been together on a team before, finished their season with a 6-3 record. Under the coaching of Mr. Oyler and Mr. Webb, these 36 players became one unit all striving toward the same goal. With the promising record of the team in mind, we look forward to their next three years as football players. The Sophomore team, under the coaching of Mr. Hungate and Mr. Phillips, finished their season with a brilliant record of 9-1. This last game was lost to Mount Vernon in a disputed last minute touchdown. These players are developing a sense of team pride and will be a great asset to the Varsity team next year.

. . . What You See Is What You Get

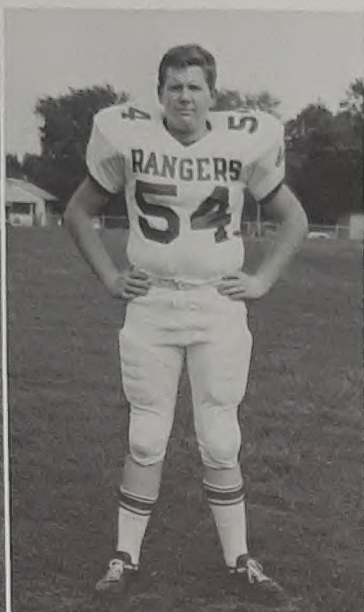

The Ranger machine, consisting of 21 revenge-seeking Rangers and 2 equally aggressive coaches, made their debut on September 13 against Sparta. Proving their worth, they won this game 26-7. The next game was once again a victory for the Rangers, this time against Metropolis. Winning by the score of 30-6, the Rangers headed with enthusiasm into their next game. But the Marion Wildcats proved to be tough and the Rangers lost by the score of 12-0. Optimism began to rise with the Ranger's defeat of Chester. But it diminished slightly when Herrin squeaked by the Rangers, 15-14. The Rangers lost their next three games to Centralia, Mt. Vernon, and Carbondale. But despite this, they didn't give up and on November 10, the Ranger machine rolled over Harrisburg with an impressive score of 48-0. Proving that Ranger spirit never dies, the machine came from behind in the Johnston City game to tie the score 14-14. The Rangers lost the Thanksgiving Day game to rival West Frankfort 32-0. Considering size, injuries, and general bad luck, the Rangers managed a respectable season record of 4-6-1.

MAURICE PHILLIPS — SOPHOMORE COACH

The Freshman basketball team finished a most successful season. The Freshman Ranger's defeat of Eldorado, 80-44, in their first game seemed to set the pattern of victory that continued throughout the next eight games. The Rangers were defeated in their two games against Mt. Vernon and Centralia, but the team recovered from these defeats and continued on their victorious ways, winning their remaining games. There is a lot of basketball talent in this class and we look forward to their entrance as Sophomore players.

Starting with a victory against Sparta, the Sophomore Rangers began their season in style. The next game against McLeansboro was another victory for the Rangers. Gaining experience with each game they played, the team continued on in a victorious manner. They lost only two games to Centralia and Meridian. The Rangers had a 12-2 season and finished as co-champions of the South Seven Conference. The Sophomores played steady basketball, handling themselves well in big games, and will be quite an asset next year as Varsity players.

1972-73 Mighty Basketball Rangers

COACH RICH HERRIN

DENNIS ANDREWS

JIM ARMEV

ROBERT CORN

PAUL DINKINS

The 1972-73 Benton Basketball Rangers were a mighty team and had the record to prove it. The varsity was composed of six seniors — Dennis Andrews, Robert Corn, David Hurley, Chris Moore, Kenny Summers, and Allan Wisely; six juniors — Jim Armev, Paul Dinkins, Steve Genisio, Scott Hall, Mark Manis, and Steve McCommons; one sophomore — Bill Smith, who rounded out the squad. This year the Benton team had tough competition from the South Seven Clubs. The Herrin team defeated the Rangers twice during the regular season; the second game was nip and tuck. The final score was 70-72. One team in the South Seven played stall games — legal in high school play. In their second meeting the Running Rangers effectively broke the Carbondale stall. Benton won by the score of 45-21. This score was considerably lower than that of the contest with Harrisburg which the Rangers won by the score of 96-57. Injuries plagued the Running Rangers during the regular season and during the tournament time. Robert Corn was sidelined early in the basketball season with a broken hand. Illness had an effect on the squad during the winter months. Prior to the start of the spring tournaments, Paul Dinkins injured his ankle; still hampered by the injury, Paul saw limited action in the Herrin Regional. The Benton Rangers are to be commended for their efforts; they were second in conference and were winners of the prestigious Centralia Holiday Tournament. Next year the Rangers with seven returning players will begin their season in a spacious new gymnasium.

Pictured at right is Larry "Rat" Giacone. Larry received an N.C.A.A. Golf Scholarship to Southern Illinois University on the basis of his golfing ability. In the Benton Invitational, Larry placed first; in the Harrisburg Invitational he placed seventh. First was Larry's position in the South Seven Conference. In district he placed second; in sectional, he placed fourth.

Golf is a game of concentration and extreme self discipline on the course. Many hours of practice were put in on the golf course by members of the 1972 team. The Benton team had a respectable season in 1972. They were six and seven in match play. The team advanced as far as district where they placed sixth. Although the 1973 team will miss the seniors from last year's team, they will look forward to the season.

The bowling team had a very successful year with a record of 4 — 1. This team also went to state and was beaten only by the state champs.

1st row: B-TEAM: Carla Mandrell, Melanie Tabor, Janice Warren, Liz Rook, Becky Kays, Cookie Armey, Gina Scott. 2nd row: A-TEAM: Laura Stewart, Donna Manning, Janice Hurley, Leslie Henly, Terry Savko, Christy Rusher, Bobby Savko. To be on one of these teams the girls had to try-out and be a member of G.A.A. After they were on the team they had to face the difficulty of buying their own uniforms and meeting at odd hours for practice. The B-team basketball record for this year was 3-2, and the A-team basketball record was 4-2. The B-team volleyball record was 3-2, and the A-team volleyball record was 2-4.

The production of this yearbook actually began in April of 1972 when the entire 1973 staff was selected on the basis of written applications. In July, ad lists were compiled. With the beginning of school came the beginning of ad soliciting for the sixth hour staff. When the soliciting was completed, the concentrated planning on the yearbook was begun. A ladder was made; the ladder is a large diagram which outlines what will appear on each page. The first section that was sent to the publishing company in Texas was the ad section which appears in the rear of the book. Also sent in on the first deadline was the club section. Each page in the book had to be designed. A preliminary layout was drawn upon a small layout sheet. Then this layout was transferred to a large rough draft layout sheet. The layout was finally transferred to a quad-pack copy sheet: four copies of the layout were made. The pictures were taken and the stories were written to form the desired layouts. After our first deadline of 32 pages was met, the staff merchandised the yearbook. In December, the freshman and sophomore class editors completed the work on their respective class sections. Identifying and stamping pictures, preparing layouts, and typing names was done by the class editors. At the same time, the sixth hour staff was working on the opening signature (sixteen pages) of the Scarab. In January, the juniors and seniors worked on and completed the remaining pages of the yearbook. Even after the remaining pages of the book were placed in the mail, the work for the staff was far from over. The company sent back pages to be carefully proof read. Subscription lists had to be checked and rechecked. Selection procedures for the 1974 staff had to be finalized. Plans had to be made for the distribution of the 1973 Scarab.

idated High School Echo

The work on The Echo, as on any other publication, proceeds in stages. The editors make assignments and set deadlines for the writers. The ad solicitors approach the business community. Given a list of subjects, the photographer begins to take pictures. Typed stories are returned by the writers and are copyread by the editors and advisor. The copy is sent to press; then it is read for errors and laid out as it will appear in the paper. The paper is now ready for printing. Hot off the press, the newspaper is distributed.

History Club

History Club, sponsored by Mrs. Lewis, is open to any student who is taking or has had a course in history. During the month of November, History Club had its annual banquet and hayride. This year History Club sponsored two dances, one in December and one in January. A joint meeting with Benton, Herrin, Z-Royalton, and Thompsonville history clubs was held in February. Mrs. Ovie S. Foster was the guest speaker at this meeting. She showed several slides of past regional meetings. The chili supper was held in March. At the end of March everyone was busy trying to complete their projects for the Regional Historical Meeting held on March 31st.

Spanish Club

Spanish Club is for students currently enrolled in a Spanish class. Spanish Club entered into Homecoming festivities with style building the first prize float, "Pluck the Redbirds," in a heated garage. In December, a Spanish-style Christmas party was held, complete with a piñata. Spanish Club also went to visit Rend Lake Junior College to see the language lab. Spanish Club held its annual picnic at the end of the school year. Spanish Club tried to supplement their knowledge of Spanish people and their customs through guest speakers. Mrs. Cordts is the sponsor.

Latin Club

The Latin Club consists of all students enrolled in the Latin I and II classes. Miss Taylor is the sponsor. In mid-December, the Latin II students enjoyed their annual Saturnalia feast with top-ranking Latin I students as slaves. They had the honor of waiting hand and foot on their favorite Sophomore. Latin Club also raffled off "slaves for a day." This year, all the freshman Latin I students could join for the first time. The raffle was held outdoors. Also, Latin Club entered into homecoming festivities with a Roman-style float that expressed the true feelings of the Latin Club — "Soc er Tuem."

The Future Homemakers of America club is open to students presently or previously enrolled in home ec. This year the club sold stationery as their fund raiser for the year's activities. The members were quite busy during the month of November; they co-hosted the Farmers' Ball with FFA and spent the end of the month building a float for the homecoming parade. In the spring National FHA Week was honored.

Future Farmers Of America

The Future Farmers of America is a club open to any boy who is taking agriculture. In the fall the new members were initiated at the barn of Kenny Sentel. Some of the things that the new members had to do were eat green persimmons, smear polk berries on their skin, crawl through mud, and kiss the farmer's bible (molasses and ground up seed.) At the first part of the year, FFA pins were issued to the freshmen and sophomores. In order for a junior or senior to get a pin, he must be an officer. The officers' pins are regular pins with an extra attachment: advisor — owl, president — rising sun, vice president — plow, secretary — ear of corn, treasurer — George Washington, and reporter — flag. From October tenth through the fourteenth, the officers of FFA and Mr. Finley, the sponsor, attended the National FFA Convention at Kansas City, Missouri. At the convention, Mr. Finley received the Honorary American Farmer Degree, the highest honorary award that the FFA presents, and a gold key. In November FFA co-hosted the Farmers' Ball with FHA. At the ball Barbara Kovarik was crowned queen and David Clark was crowned king. The FFA float entered in the homecoming parade was entitled, "It's No Bull." Throughout the year FFA participated in several judging contests.

The purpose of the Speech Club is to create a fellowship among those persons who hold a special interest in or are active in the fields of drama, oral interpretation, public speaking, debate, or communications, and to encourage excellence in communications. Mr. Ceci is the sponsor.

Girls' Athletic Association

The Girls' Athletic Association is a club for any girl who is interested in sports. This year GAA sponsored intramural tournaments in ping pong, volleyball, badminton, and basketball. GAA also had interscholastic games in the following sports: volleyball, bowling, basketball, softball, and track and field events. Tee shirts were sold as the fund raiser for this club. At the end of the year awards were given to extremely active members.

The picture below shows the senior members of the National Honor Society who were voted into the society as juniors. The faculty voted on the basis of scholarship, service, leadership, and character. More juniors and seniors were elected in the spring of the year.

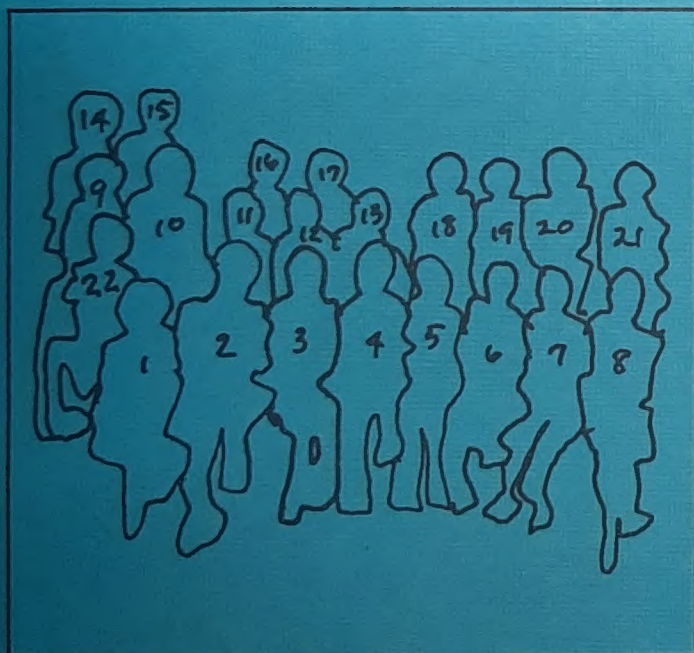

The Student Council is made up of three elected representatives from each of the junior and senior classes. Two representatives are elected from the freshman and sophomore classes. The presidents and vice presidents from each class serve on the council. This year the Student Council conducted a survey on the selection of homecoming attendants. The student body voted to allow a girl to serve as attendant for only one year; however, a former attendant may be elected queen during her senior year.

The Future Nurses Club consists of girls from all four classes. Some of the junior and senior girls chose to do volunteer work, as pinkies, at the Franklin Hospital. This club had a bake sale to acquire its money. A new FNC member was easily recognized by her multitude of bandages on initiation day. The FNC girls also helped Mrs. Aaron take height and weight measurements and give eye exams. During the Christmas season, the girls cheered the patients at the hospital by taking them decorated tray favors. At the Mother-Daughter Banquet, the club finished off the year by inaugurating the newly elected officers.

Math Club

Mu Alpha Theta is a national mathematical society. This year Mrs. Payne sponsored Math Club. Math Club meetings were held bi-monthly on the second and fourth Mondays of every month. This year the senior members presented math programs at the meetings and the underclassmen provided the refreshments. Math Club entered a float in the homecoming parade entitled "We Calculate Victory." In the winter the members received their membership certificates from the national headquarters. New associate Math Club members were initiated a day before the dance.

The Class Of 1976

Freshmen

We begin a new life. Our world now focuses on new experiences, new surroundings, and new hopes. Somehow overcoming the ridicule of our upperclassmen, we mastered our combinations, and with our handy maps, slowly but surely, we learned our way around the school. Eventually, as our confidence grew, we advanced to our destinations without even a glance above the door. Our tensions eased as we began to engage in school activities. We chose our class officers to represent us and somehow to proclaim our maturity. Our responsibilities will build as we learn to grasp at new surroundings. Our experiences in this new world of high school will help us realize our dreams for the future.

On August 28 we entered the doors of BCHS — one year older and wiser than before — feeling sophisticated as we looked down on the nervous and giddy freshmen. We nonchalantly went to our lockers and opened them without much trouble. Then we walked on to our classes, ridiculing those freshmen who were getting lost.

As school finally got underway and all the exciting activities began, we eagerly joined what was worth joining. The real fun did not start, though, until the football season and the concession stand opened. We all remember panic-stricken Mr. Aiken when someone tried to hide a "dog" for himself to eat after we closed. However, we did not get "exciiiiited."

We had a money making project, selling candles this year. Mrs. Craddock has still not completely recuperated from running down certain sophomores and asking them to turn in their candle money.

We enjoyed Homecoming, although we did not have a float. We were very proud to have had some of our sophomore boys playing in the Turkey Day Game.

Our sophomore year was a memorable one and we are looking forward to the next two years as upperclassmen. Our class officers and sponsors are pictured above: Mr. Aiken, sponsor; Sheryl Cambron, president; Mrs. Craddock, sponsor; David Sluzevich, treasurer; Lisa Simpson, secretary; Chris Bicket, vice-president.

Juniors Class Of 1974

Football season . . . Homecoming . . . World's Finest Chocolate
. . . basketball season . . . Prom . . . the tests . . .

These are but a few things that will shape our future lives and somehow mold us into beings that will be thrust into a world of adulthood. It is a beginning of a change in our lives where our feelings weigh heavily; our moods form our conduct. We face decisions that question our moral viewpoint — choosing the right for ourselves as individuals. These brief moments in our lives — most to be forgotten . . . the best to be shared . . . decisions . . . morals . . . the "crowd" . . . feelings . . . positions . . . moods . . . sorrow . . . happiness . . . and our world rushes on.

The class officers are above: Nancy Cybulski, president; Nancy Eldridge, secretary; Mrs. Hill, sponsor; Brenda Eisenhauer, treasurer; Beverly Walker, vice-president; Mr. Shepard, sponsor, not available for picture.

Don't long for the "good old days" for you don't know whether they were any better than these!

Ecclesiastes 7:10

Cafeteria lines . . . your first date . . . carols in the hall . . . semester exams . . . Mr. Rhodes . . . falling plaster . . . Problems class . . . pep sessions . . . rolling on the front lawn . . . the night before graduation . . .

Is there anything that pulls this all together? Probably not. Is there anything we all have in common? Nothing, save these four years.

Perhaps the single thread connecting 1969 to 1973 has been the two-edged theme of hope and disappointment. There has been hope for peace in Vietnam, hope for unity during the Olympic games, hope for compromises within our nation. Yet, these hopes were squelched as the hope for peace died time and time again, as the Olympic games ended in brutal massacres, as our differences tore our nation apart. A new pride in our space programs brought America into a shining prominence, but in this year, the program was abruptly cut off. Our community struggled through trials, bad weather, and strikes to complete our new high school by January; however, this hope diminished into the disappointment of waiting until next year.

To seniors, the theme has become a reality. We have hopes of new experiences awaiting us after graduation, yet there is the disappointment of leaving friends and good times. There is a hope for a bright future, and there is disappointment in goals not yet attained.

Now, for the first time, we realize that life isn't all one way or another. There is a time for everything and a purpose for everything. With this thought in mind, we dedicate this section to the Class of 1973.

Pictured at the left are our class officers, council members, and sponsors: Becky Eisenhower, treasurer; Ted Stotlar, council member; Melanie Tabor, vice-president; Joe Padavic, council member; Mr. Richmond and Mr. Jourdan, sponsors; Mary Jankousky, secretary; Becky Harvey, president; Lex Stewart, council member.

Starting Each Day

#1. Mr. Richmond — Did the Lone Ranger have a horse like this one?

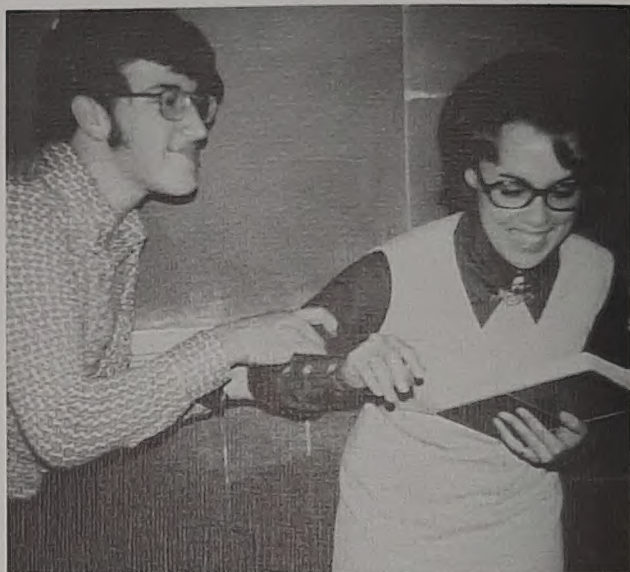

#3. Miss Taylor — "What is a Sarumalia?"

#1.

#2. Mrs. Payne — "Really I couldn't!"

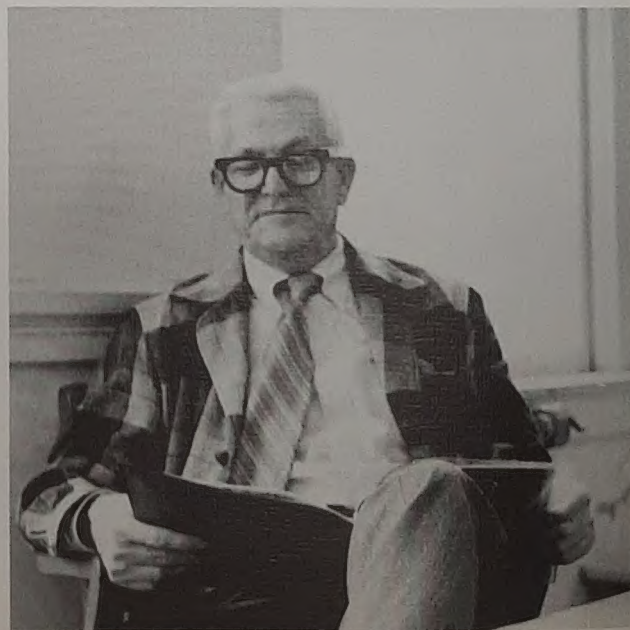

#4. Mr. Aiken — "The things they print these days!"

#2.

#3.

#4.

With A Bright Outlook

#1. Mrs. Roberts — "Does anyone need a ride?"

#1.

#2. Miss Stanley — Oooo, it's cold out here.

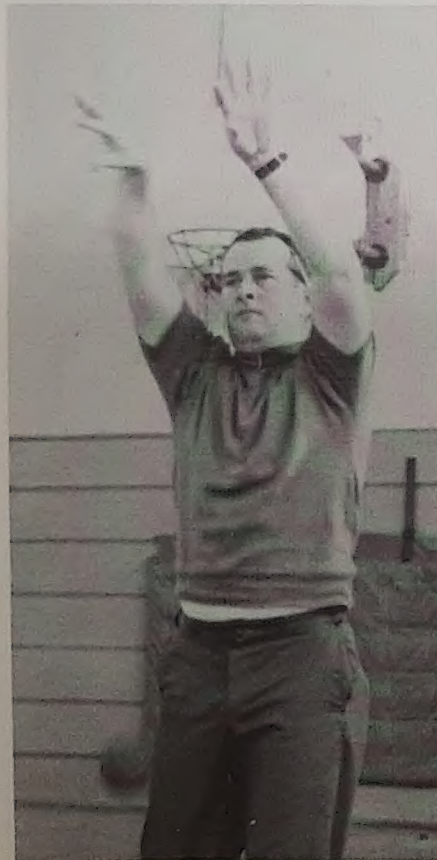

#2.

#3. Mr. Herrin — "All right boys!"

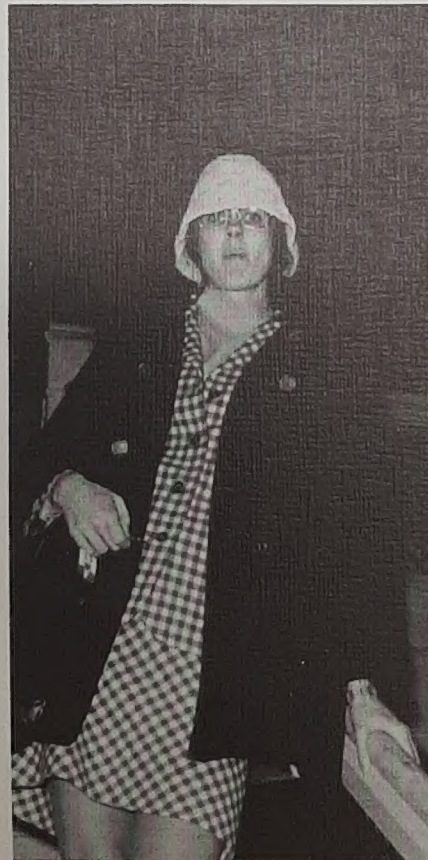

#3.

#4. Mr. Phillips — They say prayer helps.

#4.

#5. Mrs. Taylor — "James Bond doesn't have anything on me."

#5.

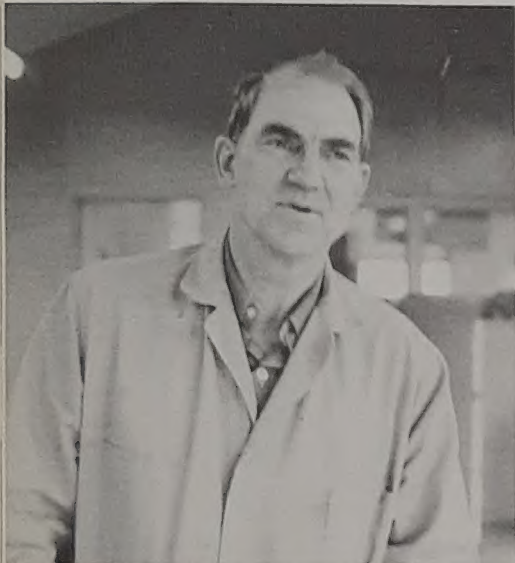

Ready To Burst Forth With Knowledge

#1. Mr. Rea — "All right, who hid the hammer?"

#2. Mr. Ceci — "Whar do you mean you already found it?"

#3. Mrs. Hill — "It sure has been a long day!"

#4. Mrs. Frailey — But, it is music.

#1.

#2.

#3.

#4.

To Share A Portion Of Ourselves

#2.

#3.

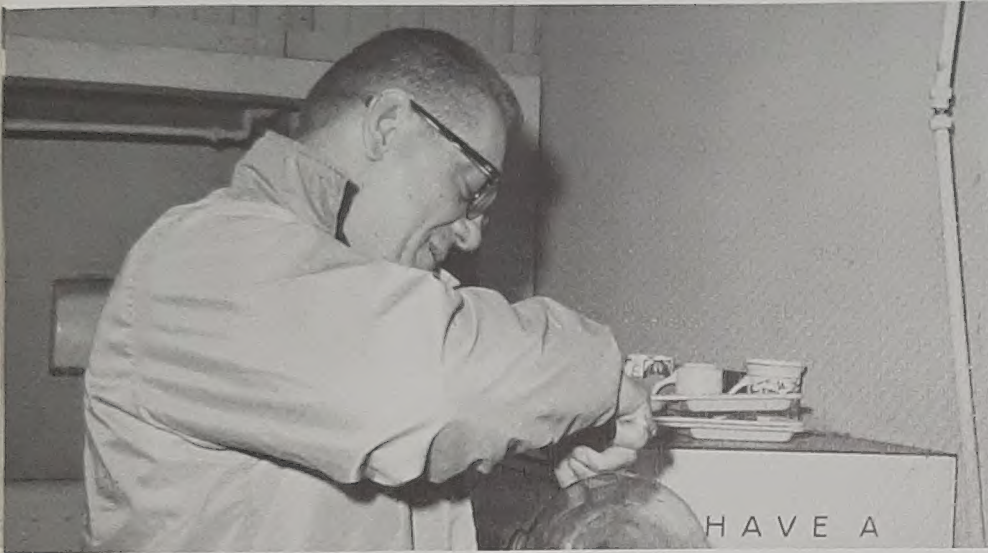

#4.

Teaching A Little More As We Learn

#1. Mrs. Aaron — "She's got what?"

#3. Mr. Messersmith — I wouldn't let them write a corny saying for me.

#1.

#2. Miss Sentel — "Do you have to take this picture?"

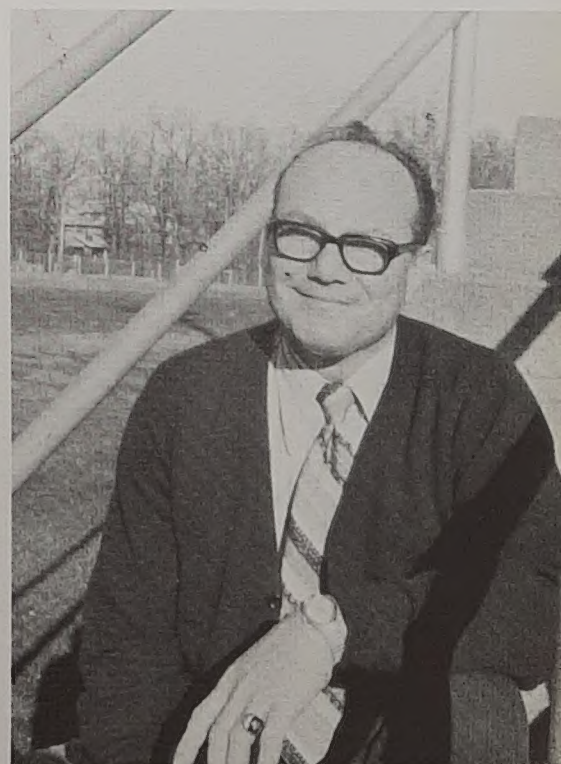

#4. Mr. Huffman — "My band just deserted me; but do I look worried?"

#3.

#4.

To Reach To Complete A Whole

#1. Mrs. Jones — "Oh, that's so sweet!"

#1.

#2. Mrs. Smith — "You just cooked what?"

#2.

#3. Mr. Nadler — "Hmm . . . forgot where the house is."

#3.

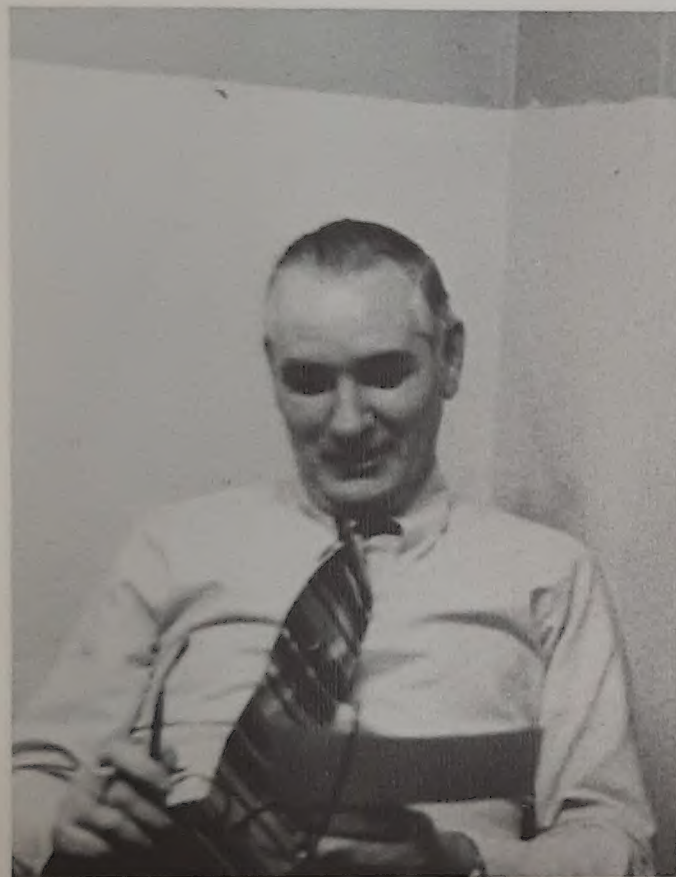

#4. Mrs. Craddock — "All right, who had salami for lunch?"

#4.

Somehow Enrich A Life . . .

#1. Mr. Gulley — "Yes, you have to take P.E!"

#1.

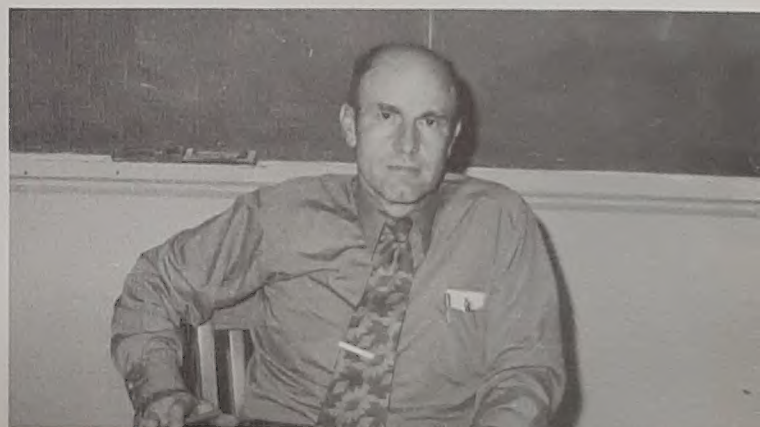

#2.

#3. Mrs. Dallape — What help these days!

#3.

#4.

#5.

Overcoming The Problems That Would Slow Our Lives

#1. Mr. Cole — "Meet George."

#1.

#2. Mrs. Little — "You want what book?"

#2.

#3. Mrs. Neal — "What do you mean, the flash didn't work?"

#3.

#4. Mr. Finley — "What did you say this thing is called?"

#4.

And Somehow Thanking God It's Sixth Hour

#1. Mrs. Rea — "What did you say this was? . . . a sweet tart?"

#1.

#2. Mrs. Lewis — "Crank it up and let's go!"

#2.

#3. Mrs. Pribble — Time at the tone is . . .

#3.

#4. Mrs. Trulove — "My watch — yes that's Mickey Mouse."
